INDIVISIBLE

Sharon,

At 2 am last night, under the cover of darkness, GOP senators forced through a vote for a sham impeachment trial without any hard evidence at all -- no witnesses, no documents, nothing.

Newsflash: A trial without evidence is a cover up.

GOP senators think they can shield Trump by hiding evidence, but we know how to stop them: a constant pressure campaign, on the phones, in the press, over the airwaves, at people's doors, and in the streets. We've beaten them before (Obamacare, the Blue Wave) and we'll do it again. Click here to make your donation to reject the GOP's rigged trial and fund the fight against Trump and the GOP.

Today's vote was a slap in the face of our democracy. And we're ready to fight back. While the GOP conducts its sham trial, we're launching the Payback Project: a new Indivisible program to make sure we hold Trump-enabling GOP senators accountable for every vote to destroy our country and hold onto power. We're still finalizing all the details, but you can expect a massive mobilization and a robust strategy to kick all the worst Trump enablers out of office and take back the Senate for Democrats.

We know we can do it, because we've spent the last three years fighting as Republican senators and their counterparts in the House tried to take away our healthcare, expand Trump's deportation force, and build a stupid wall.

We've used the tactics in the original Guide -- calls, office visits, events -- and we've gotten creative, with parades and milk cartons and tons of other ideas. We built the Blue Wave -- with 4 million phone calls and 6 million texts and literally thousands of events and actions.

Our movement has the tools and expertise to win this fight, but it's extremely costly to organize and resource millions of activists, ads, and more. So while we finalize what our plan for payback is going to look like, we're asking you to make an early investment in making it happen:

We're tired of the GOP hijacking our government to serve their own interests, and we know you are too.

So let's work together to replace them.

In solidarity,
Indivisible Team
